

Year 3 - Term 4 Enquiries

Acer Learning Zone Enquiry 4.1

How do authors engage readers?

Writing to Entertain

Writing to entertain

Fictional narrative, retelling of our story.

Acer Learning Zone Enquiry 4.2

How do plants survive?

Being a scientist

Writing to explain

Instructions for how to grow a sunflower seed.

Acer Learning Zone Enquiry 4.3

Are insects helpful or harmful?

Being a scientist

Writing to persuade

Persuading the reader that insects are helpful.

We are learning to...

Being a Writer

Writing in paragraphs, add detail with expanded noun phrases, use verb forms correctly, link ideas clearly using conjunctions, pronouns and adverbs.

Being a Mathematician

We will focus on using column methods for addition and subtraction, and deepen our understanding of multiplicative reasoning.

Being a Reader

Developing fluency and understanding as a reader. Exploring vocabulary and building verbal reasoning skills by exploring and discussing language structures across a variety of text types.

Being an Artist

Create a 3D model of an insect around a form use different medium to represent body parts e.g. wings/hard exoskeleton.

Being a Citizen

'Healthy Me', helping children to think about how we can keep ourselves healthy

Being a Scientist

Learning how flowering plants grow and reproduce. We'll also be exploring the roles and life cycles of insects.

Being a Computer Scientist

N/A

Being a Historian

N/A

Being a Designer

We will design an insect - sculpting in wood, devise features & habitat.

Being a Geographer

N/A

Being a Linguist

We will be learning Spanish, with a focus on Los saludos (types of greetings).

Being an Athlete

Yoga and Real PE, building their sending, receiving and partner balance skills through fun challenges and games!

Being a Musician

Continue to explore sound, developing technique, and playing simple melodies on brass instruments.